

“unless cause to the contrary is shown in writing before or at the expiration of the time limited in said notice, the transfer applied for will be granted, and the application shall be subject in all other respects to the provisions of said Act, save the payment of license fee.”

By this section it will be seen that the liquor license becomes negotiable property, and is susceptible of being used to the detriment of the finances both of Baltimore county and the State of Maryland, and again, I doubt the propriety of making these licenses negotiable, except in the event of death.

For these reasons I am obliged to withhold my approval.

FRANK BROWN,
Governor.

The House reconsidered said bill.

The question being put,

“Shall the bill pass notwithstanding the objection of the Executive?”

It was decided in the negative, by yeas and nays, as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.—None.

NEGATIVE.—Messrs. Speaker, Garner, Strong, Bra-shears, Donaldson, Hutchins, Sappington, of Anne Arundel, Ireland, Carrico, Maddox, Orrick, Cole, Elliott, Hamilton, Jr., Monmonier, Schlaffer, Collins, Wooters, Leonard, Meredith, Smith, of Dorchester, Miles, Kirk, Grove, of Cecil, Bowie, of Prince George’s, Hill, Perrie, Godwin, Franklin, Wilkinson, Hayman, McSherry, Gaver, Grove, of Frederick, Sappington, of Frederick, Johnson, Thompson, Fitzgerald, Brennan, Carter, Bowie, of Baltimore city, Gallagher, Gill, Carr, Laird, Griffith, Haines, Sellman, Berret, Leeds, Tracey—51.

So the veto was sustained.

Also, delivered the following veto message from the Executive:

STATE OF MARYLAND,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

Annapolis, March 24th, 1892.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

I respectfully return without my approval House bill number one hundred and ninety nine.
